Kevin Kiernan - Founder

Becoming a Practitioner of Trinity Healing™...

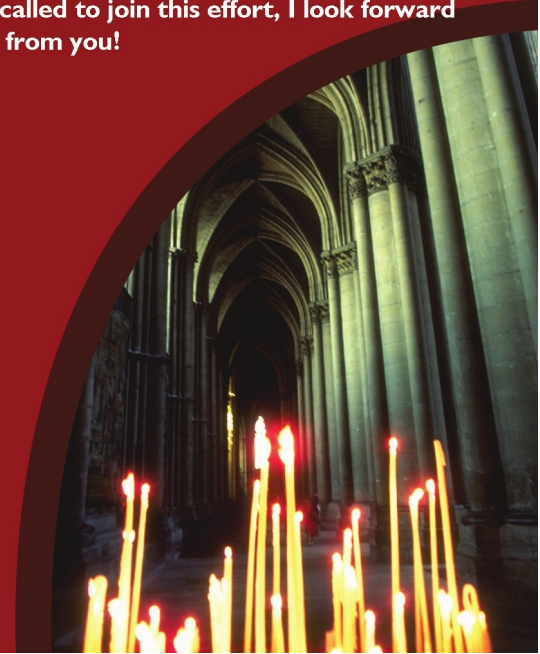

This spiritual practice chooses you as much as you choose it. It is a vocation and a calling. Your innate capacity to heal and facilitate healing is a gift that you are born with. When you complete your Introduction to Trinity Healing™ you are free to share this vibration with your community, however, you are not permitted to refer to yourself as a practitioner of Trinity Healing™.

Your becoming a Practitioner and member of the community of healers who represent the philosophy and practice of Trinity Healing™ is a multi-step process which starts with your application for admission to the training.

If you want to teach Trinity Healing™ we feel that the urgent need for teachers calls for a clear path over a finite period of time for Practitioners to achieve the status of teacher.

Unlike other practices which seek to artificially limit the number of teachers of their modalities, it is our intention to grow the number of teachers of Trinity Healing™ at a pace that reflects the urgent need on this planet for Facilitators of Ascension!

If you feel called to join this effort, I look forward to hearing from you!

About Kevin Kiernan

Kevin Kiernan has been in esoteric practice for over 17 years and doing energy healing work since 1997. Trinity Healing is the next evolutionary step in the process of our ascension. This work is a quantum leap forward into a new paradigm of energy healing that transcends the ego and technique.

About Your Healing Session

Your session can be conducted in person or at distance. Locally, you would receive the session laying fully clothed on a massage table. Although the work can be conducted hands on, it is generally performed without any physical contact.

Your practitioner simply tunes into your energetic field and during the course of your 30 minutes on the table, your own resonance shifts into the vibration of Trinity Healing.

We recommend 1 to 3 sessions for any particular ailment followed by a period of 4 to 6 weeks during which you allow the vibration to do its work. Additional sessions may be helpful but healings can manifest inside the first session.

Introductions to Trinity Healing™

A person's ability to consciously recognize and work with the vibrations of Trinity Healing™ cannot be taught, it can only be remembered!

Within each one of us resides a Divine Spark which connects us with our Creator. This first Source and Center is what we tap into when we conduct a healing session.

Just as your innate capacity to heal is triggered during your healing session, your innate capacity to facilitate healings is triggered inside of our Introduction to Trinity Healing™ workshop.

This half day workshop is an inexpensive way to find out if you want to develop your own capabilities as a healing practitioner. For the cost of a healing session with Kevin, you can learn to access and work with this amazing healing vibration with your friends, family and community!

You must have received a healing session prior to attending this workshop. This workshop is a prerequisite for admission to our practitioner training program.
